Malibu Jewish Center & Synagogue Havurah Application 2008-2009

What is Havurah?

A Havurah is a group of MJC&S adults who meet, usually at their own discretion, with or without children, to share Jewish learning and experiences in an "extended family" setting. Each Havurah decides its own focus. Some concentrate on religious activities, whereas some are strictly social. Each group decides how often it will meet, and whether it will emphasize family activities or concentrate on adult activities. In other words, groups are autonomous, but tied to MJC&S members. The Havurah experience is for people who are seeking a smaller scale Jewish community and are willing to give and work towards building this unique bond.

What does a Havurah do?

Each Havurah decides its program based on its own needs. One Havurah might be involved in a self taught study unit on the Torah, while another may be going on a weekend to Palm Springs, while another may be planning a picnic with their kids. Some Havurahs do holiday dinners together and are there to help one another in good times and bad. Havurahs support synagogue events, and usually come as a group.
